

Career Life Connections 12 Marking Assessment

1. All assignments have a rubric attached to them located in the course
2. Those assignments which do not have a rubric will be marked COMPLETE, PARTIALLY COMPLETE, INCOMPLETE, RESUBMIT
3. All assignments are due on or before the due date.
4. Late assignments are accepted but will be marked without feedback and given at least 50% of the possible grade. (Journals cannot be handed in late, these are meant to show progress on your Capstone-they will have a one week buffer period)
5. If you did not hand in your work by the reporting period deadline, then it will be zeroed out
  - a. Student will have a deadline of approximately 2-3 months to submit any zeroed out work for at least 50%.
  - b. If the work is not turned by this final deadline (for each term), then the mark will remain a “0” on those assignments.
6. Assignments resubmitted will not be remarked. Assignments that have feedback is meant to correct for your final presentation or correcting for future assignments.
